MARQUEES

Elite's venue of the year!

The venue for your big day is possibly the most important thing to consider, and one which should really be considered top of the 'to do' list from the start. Not only does it need to be in the right location, but it also needs to reflect your style as a couple, as well as in keeping with your budget! However, here at Elite we think we have found the perfect solution to all your venue dilemmas in the shape of our Wedding Venue of the Year....Pearl Marquees.

A luxury marquee company at competitive prices, whatever your requirements, whether big or small, a personal and reliable service at the heart of everything they do. "Quality, service and pursuit of customer satisfaction have been the essential elements that characterise Pearl Marquees. We understand our customers and tailor everything to your requirements. We are truly passionate about what we do and look to offer nothing less than our best for all our customers" explained company Director, Kay Bennag. Pearl Marquees stand out from the rest with their attention to detail, professionalism, and personalised service all whilst remaining affordable.
